1	----- in art in particular has given my child opportunities that I really appreciate. She seems to have invested real time and care in my child that has really helped my child's confidence. I honestly cannot thank the staff enough.	11/4/2019 6:13 PM
2	Thanks it's been very helpful and informative to meet ----- teachers	11/4/2019 5:58 PM
3	Happy to hear ---- is doing well and has settled into high school. All the teachers were very helpful in explaining what they are doing in class and what they will be doing next.	11/4/2019 5:36 PM
4	For a school with an additional needs unit....it was hard for ----- To go asking for appointments when he genuinely struggles to ask for things. Maybe using an online booking system like other Falkirk schools do might help support children in the ASC that struggle with social communication. Also while I appreciate trying to consolidate the teachers into the smallest area, it was very distracting having so much background noise. And having autism myself I couldn't concentrate on what was being said and found it a very wasted experience as there was too much noises around me, multiple conversations. Not supportive to families with additional support needs....either those who are in the ASC or parents who could be hard of hearing or having autism etc.	11/4/2019 5:34 PM
